Steam Boat Agent. Nov 20, 1846 10-3t Valuable Turpentine Land FOR SALE.

HE subscriber having determined to emigrate to Florida, offers for sale his plantation on Little River, South Carolina, 53 miles from Witmington. The plantation contains about $.000 acres of land, a part of which is adapted to the production of Corn, Peas, Potatoes. &c. The balance is very valuable for Turpentine. About 80,000 boxes were cut on this plantation last winter and spring, and are now in good condition .-From 20,000 to 30,000 boxes may yet be cut so as to make at least 10 good tasks. The favorable location of this plantation, situated on the main road leading from Wilmington to Georgetown-convenient to Little River, only from two to three miles to haul to the landing, where vessels may take in turpentine or produce at any season of the year, makes it a very desirable place for those wishing to engage in the turpentine and farming business. On the place there is a comfortable two story framed dwelling, with all other necessary buildings. The above plantation may be purchased low, and on very accommodating terms. For further information address
